

3 Photos of Rome

By Kaya Equevilley

Balla & Snella, a group that encourages women to lose weight through dance. The hope is to create an alternative to the gym, without dieting.

A pop up event called run like a dancer in Rome takes place in front of the Coliseum on March 23.

The Jubilee prompts new guided tour routes at Saint Peter's Basilica to accommodate the combination of pilgrimages, tourists, and locals on March 25.

“The Vatican gets an average of 35 thousand visitors a day,” said Paola Fontana, a tour guide for LivTours in Rome. As Rome celebrates Jubilee, they are expected to receive more than 30 million pilgrims.

Tourists and locals
congregate on the Spanish
Steps in Rome on March 29.

The Spanish Steps are a popular tourist attraction in Rome.